Nobody Knows Charlotte Like Headen & Company

We take our commitment to Charlotteans seriously. Whether it is a single family dwelling, an apartment complex, a condominium, or an investment program for the future, Headen & Company has something designed for you.

Although we are the fastest growing company of its kind in Charlotte, we take the time to find out what you want. For example, we're developing Stonington, Woodhaven and Woodmere which were planned just for Charlotte living. (Headen has three more on the drawing boards for this year.)

Around town you can notice the fifteen apartment complexes that suit every taste. Two more are presently under construction.

We've grown up with Charlotte. From our little realty company seven years ago to our company of today which builds and plans the Charlotte of tomorrow.

Maybe we've grown because nobody knows Charlotte like Headen & Company.
